PRICE, ONE CENT.

HEARST BACKED VERY STRONGLY IN HIS CONTEST.

Already Has Several Hundred Affidavits Showing Fraud In Election of Tuesday and More are Coming.

WARRANTS WILL BE SERVED SHORTLY

William Ivins, Defeated Candidate, Offers His Services as Counsel, and Press Back Up the Contestant.

New York, Nov. 9.—The contest of William R. Hearst for the mayoralty is well under way. Interesting and important developments are forecasted. The board of elections both in Manhattan and Brooklyn had their hands full this morning receiving the ballot boxes used in Tuesday's election from the police. The ballot boxes were turned over on the midnight order of Supreme Court Justice Gaylor. So great was the crowd in front of the board of elections buildings in Manhattan and Brooklyn, when the patrol wagons arrived with the ballot boxes, that the police reserves were called out to keep order.

Hearst has engaged a long array of counsel and William M. Ivins Republican candidate for the mayoralty, has offered him his services as counsel without compensation.

The Hearst people have over 600 affidavits of fraud and more will be taken today, when several warrants for arrests will be applied for. Hearst is not alone in his desire for a recount, for the press and people generally today are making insistent demands for a thorough investigation of charges and a recount.

When Commissioner Voorhies arrived at the office of the bureau of elections this morning he declined to receive the ballots which had been carted there. He stated that the supreme court had decided that the bureau of elections was not the custodian of ballot boxes and the police were. He, however, sent to corporation Counsel Delaney for a decision in the matter, and the reply is expected some time this afternoon.

Meanwhile the ballot boxes are piled up in front of the election bureau building on 42nd street, and guarded by the police.

Hearst is holding a conference this afternoon with legal advisers, regarding the next step.

The First Step.

The order for the taking of the ballots was granted after Justice Gaylor had reviewed affidavits submitted by Mr. Hearst's attorneys, and half an hour later Col. Alexander S. Bacon and F. W. Brown, representing Mr. Hearst, served the order on Commissioner McAdoo, who sent out a general order to every precinct in Great New York instructing the captains or other officers in charge to send the ballot boxes straightaway to the bureau of elections in Manhattan. In signing the order Justice Gaylor said:

"The police have nothing whatever to do with the ballot boxes, and it is most astonishing that they should have possession of them. They have no right to even touch them. The order is granted."

The granting of the order came unexpectedly and caused much surprise, and with the opinion of Justice Gaylor that the police have no right to the ballot boxes and should not even touch them, a new aspect is placed on the case. This is the first time such an order was ever issued, as heretofore the police have always had charge of the ballot boxes after the count has been taken at the polling places. They are removed to the station houses immediately after the inspectors and clerks have counted up the ballots.

Hearst's managers have declared that they have secured evidence of illegal votes against 1,000 inspectors of election, most of whom are men who went to the polls to vote for Mr. Hearst. They said that their names had already been voted on. Most of this fraudulent vote is said to have been done in East New York assembly districts, especially, it is claimed, in the 15th, Charles F. Murphy's home district, and in the sixth, of which Timothy D. Sullivan is the leader.

Mr. Hearst's proposed action met with approval in many quarters, even among those who opposed his election, and he received many assurances of support. District Attorney Jerome expressed himself in terms of strong approval of Mr. Hearst's programme, and declared that he would immediately institute a searching investigation of the alleged democratic frauds.

Tammany Protested.

After a secret session of the executive committee of Tammany Hall held yesterday afternoon, the following statement was issued:

"The executive committee of the Democratic organization protests against the outrageous published threat of the defeated candidate of the Municipal Ownership League to overthrow the will of the people, as expressed by the vote cast on election day, and disesteem a law committee to exert its best efforts and take such steps and institute such proceedings as will safeguard the election of George B. McClellan as mayor of New York."

"We also call on the commissioner of police and the custodian of the ballots to preserve the same intact from all interference by anyone from any unauthorized source."

Some of the leaders after the meeting expressed the opinion that the returns showed evidence of Mr. Murphy's leadership, and that he should as a result step down and out and make room for a man against whom nothing could be charged. They thought that it was time for George B. McClellan to assume the leadership himself.

FORAKER'S EXPLANATION.

Says Republican Defeats in Ohio Do Not Relate to National Politics.

Cincinnati, Nov. 9.—United States Senator J. B. Foraker last night authorized the following statements. "The defeat we have sustained in the city and in the state have no relation to national politics but are due solely to local and other causes. Whether right or not the belief obtains that the great mass of voters have not had any proper representation in nominating conventions and that a man with an ambition to engage in the public service had no opportunity unless he was fortunate enough to be put on a prearranged slate. It was natural to expect that sooner or later this would be resented. In large part that is what the defeat of yesterday meant. It will be easy to cure this trouble. The way is to return to the old fashioned practice of having real conventions at which all who aspire to nominations will have an equal chance. There were other causes that contributed to our defeat that will occur to every one familiar with the situation, but I don't care to discuss them for they will pass away with this election."

FIRST SINCE 1869.

Republican Elected to Senate From Missouri.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 9.—United States Senator Warner-elect, the first republican to be elected to the Senate from Missouri since Carl Schurz in 1869; last night at a farewell banquet said:

"The demand of the hour in official life is intellectual honesty, a demand for officials to act right as well as to think right; officials who have the light of duty, as God gives them light to see their duty, letting the chips fall where they may. Today, the man of all men in official life who leads the column of intellectual honesty, is the President of the United States. No other President since Lincoln has trusted the people as Roosevelt trusts them, and no other President has the people trust as they trust Roosevelt."

FOR A RECOUNT.

Massachusetts Democrats Will Petition for It.

Boston, Nov. 9.—In a conference at the headquarters of the Democratic state committee yesterday it was decided to petition for a recount of the votes cast for lieutenant governor.

It was felt that in the fact of a plurality for Dr. Russell of only 1,996 that errors in the first count might possibly change the result.

Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 9.—W. D. Vandiver, state superintendent of insurance, last night suspended the certificate of authority of the New York Life Insurance company to do business in this state.

The order says: "Notice is hereby given that whereas information in my possession and verified by examination of the official stenographers' report of the recent examination of the officers of the New York Life Insurance company of New York, by the legislative investigation committee of the state of New York gives me reasonable cause to suspect, and I do suspect and believe, that the funds of the said company have been impaired by the diversion of large sums of money for illegal and wrongful purposes, and that the further continuance of the said New York Life Insurance company in the writing of life insurance in this state under its present management, is hazardous to the public and to those who hold the policies; therefore I, W. D. Vandiver, superintendent of the insurance department of the state of Missouri, have this day suspended the certificate of authority heretofore granted to said company to do the business of writing life insurance in this state."

INSURANCE PROBING HAS BEEN RESUMED

Investigation of the Mutual Life Insurance Company Taken Up Immediately After the Elections.

New York, Nov. 9.—After a two-weeks' interruption because of the campaign, the legislative committee has resumed its investigation of life insurance methods. The first witness was Emory McClintock, actuary of the Mutual Life Insurance company, who has been under examination several days before. Mr. McClintock submitted yesterday a statement of earnings and dividends of the company for five years, which showed that in 1904 the realized earnings of the company were $6,624,677. The witness said was exclusive of any loss or gain by the decrease of increase in the market value of securities. The total dividends for this year were $2,714,549, of which $538,504 were annual dividends.

In answer to questions from Mr. Hughes Mr. McClintock said that the apportionment of dividends for 1904 was estimated and made up in November, 1905, before it was known that the earnings of 1904 would be $6,624,677. The earnings of 1903 were $5,503,861, and witness said there was no assumed amount of increase taken into account when the dividends were made up. It was arrived at by taking into consideration the general run of the business.

President Hegeman of the Metropolitan Life testified today that his salary rose from $15,000 in 1877 to $100,000 in 1905.

Miss Guyette was alone in the house and was cleaning a pair of gloves with gasoline. She had placed the gloves on her hand and after putting the fluid on her hand she placed her hands near a hot fire. The gasoline was ignited and the girl's clothing took fire. She ran from the house into the back yard and then to the house of Mr. Blanchard. She was just about to reach the doorstep, but fell just as assistance arrived. The girl was wrapped in a carpet and the flames extinguished. Dr. E. P. McSweney was summoned, and dressed the arms. The burns on the left hand extended from the fingers to the shoulders and on the right hand from the fingers to the elbow. Her condition is serious.

In rounding a sharp curve, almost directly back of George McFarland's home, two passenger coaches jumped the track. The curve was such, however, as to throw the cars into the mud bank instead of throwing them over a high embankment. The engine and one car remained on the iron and proceeded to this city. A wrecking train was summoned at once and arrived late in the evening. The track was cleared in time for the early train this morning to go through to Williamstown. Nobody was injured and the cars were not much the worse for their mix-up.

ACCOSTED BY THE MEN

And Then Miss Bau Became Excited.

FIRE DISCRIMINATELY

Is in a Concord, N. H., Institution to Be Examined as to Her Sanity—Bought the Revolver in Montpelier Tuesday.

Woodsville, N. H., Nov. 9.—Christine Bau, who shot J. B. Burt and Clarence Gonyer here Tuesday night, was held in the police court yesterday without bail for the grand jury on a charge of assault with intent to kill. She was taken to the state hospital at Concord yesterday afternoon to undergo examination as to her sanity, until the meeting of the grand jury two weeks hence.

Her father, Christine Bau of Barre, Vt., came here yesterday and with the sheriff accompanied her to Concord. She has been subject to periods of mania since she was 15 years of age, manifest at first in suicidal intent, later in homicidal.

She is devoutly religious, a member of the Methodist church of Barre, and has during the last few weeks been greatly interested in the revival meetings in that city under the leadership of Evangelist Gilliam. Last week she was delegate to an Epworth league convention in St. Johnsbury, Vt. Except that she had appeared tired, her family had noticed no indication of a recurrence of her mania.

Tuesday after dinner she proposed going to Montpelier to see a girl friend, and left home as usual. She went to Montpelier, purchased a revolver and cartridges and took the train to Woodsville. She arrived here about 5 o'clock, had supper at the Parker house, and before 7 o'clock went out, and began walking up and down Court street, stopping once or twice to peer in at the windows of the Y. M. C. A. building. This led to her being accosted by two or three young men, when she became excited, and began shooting indiscriminately. Her subsequent conduct was full of evidence of her insanity.

Will Be Examined.

Concord, N. H., Nov. 9.—Christine Bau of Barre, Vt., who created a furor of excitement by her wild shooting at Woodsville Tuesday evening, in the course of which J. B. Burt and Clarence Gonyer were shot, was taken to the state hospital for the insane here yesterday for an examination as to her sanity.

C. Bau, the young lady's father, returned to Barre this morning from Concord, to which place he accompanied her from Woodsville, N. H. Christine told him about buying the revolver in Montpelier, and said the place was on a side street, and that the man who sold it instructed her as to its operation.
